

MRI Clothing Guidelines

Your safety is our primary concern at UCLA Health. The American College of Radiology has found that during MRI Scanning, some fibers in street clothing can heat up.

This can result in serious skin burns.

It is mandatory that ALL patients change from their street clothes into the gown, shorts and/or pants provided.

THIS INCLUDES ALL UNDERGARMENTS

Failure to comply with this safety policy will result in the rescheduling of your exam.

For more information:

Please speak with your technologist or imaging center manager